

Alvin Curling: Former Ambassador leads Government Relations practice at Business Development group

For Immediate Release

(Toronto) The Honourable Alvin Curling, a former Canadian Ambassador and speaker of the Ontario Legislature provide government relations services for The Venture Catalysts, a business development consultancy

“Mr. Curling has a keen awareness of the role government plays in ensuring Canadian Entrepreneurs can succeed, here at home or overseas,” says Jim Adams, Managing Partner of The Venture Catalysts.

The Venture Catalysts has a wide range of Canadian and International clients who are looking to leverage government resources in order to develop stronger businesses in Canada.

Mr. Curling, recently completed service as Canada’s Ambassador to the Dominican Republic. Prior to that Mr. Curling served almost 20 years as a Toronto area MPP in the Ontario Legislature, including stints as the Speaker and a Cabinet Minister. During one election he received the highest vote total in Canadian history.

He has served on numerous advisory boards and committees including the World Hunger Project, president of World Literacy of Canada, and member of the Advisory Board to the Chinese Cultural Centre. He was honoured by the Government of Jamaica with the Order of Distinction, in the rank of Commander.

For a complete biography please visit www.theventurecatalysts.net

The Venture Catalysts provides business development services to Canadian entrepreneurs including strategic planning, investment relations’ services and franchise development programs. Formed in 2001, the company also publishing Canada’s Business Funding Directory, Micro Cap News and provides marketing support through Vibe Creative and TVC-Hosting.com

-30-

Contact:

Jim Adams
Managing Partner
416-769-3186
jim.adams@theventurecatalysts.net
www.theventurecatalysts.net